On the Wall

Wet System wallcoverings by Wall&Decò are specifically created for damp environments—an artistic alternative to traditional tile and stone. The new collection comprises 22 designs, including Mind Map by Alhambretto+AM Prod (shown). $250 per sq. yd. wallanddeco.com

In the Gym

Using digital weights, intelligent coaching, and personalized training, Tonal's all-in-one fitness machine provides an on-demand, full-body workout at home without taking up square footage. Two adjustable arms add up to 200 pounds of strength training, and the piece folds compactly against the wall when not in use. From $2,995. tonal.com

On the Counter

The Sasaki Masuta is a precision-forged seven-inch blade made with 67 layers of Japanese Damascus high-carbon stainless steel; it comes with a locking sheath to keep it fully protected. $100 for santoku knife (shown). amazon.com

On Tap

Axor MyEdition is a tailor-made collection focused on bringing individualization to the bathroom. The new faucet line pairs the company's sleek, low-profile taps with 15 cover plates—including surfaces in leather, marble, glass, and wood—and even offers the option to add an inscription. MyEdition also encompasses six products for personalizing washbasins and bathtubs. Price upon request. axor-design.com

On the Hinges

De Castell's newest finish, Marea, utilizes layers of oxidization on brass, copper, and iron for effects that are evocative of watercolors. This finish can be used in several furnishing applications, as seen here in a collaboration with Linvisibile on its floor-to-wall doors. Price upon request. decastelli.it
